*If you are a new hire and you apply within 31 days after you are eligible to elect coverage for yourself, you are entitled to choose any coverage offered up to the Guaranteed Issue Amount, without providing proof of good health. If you apply for an amount of coverage greater than the Guaranteed Issue Amount, coverage in excess of the Guaranteed Issue Amount will not be issued until the insurance company approves acceptable proof of good health. If you apply for coverage yourself more than 31 days from the date you become eligible to elect coverage under this plan, the Guaranteed Issue Amount will not apply. Coverage will not be issued until the insurance company approves acceptable proof of good health.

**Multiple payments – For a covered person to be eligible for more than one benefit payment, the diagnosis is either considered an additional critical illness benefit or a recurrence benefit. Additional critical illness benefit: pays a benefit if the covered person experiences a diagnosis which is a different critical illness from which a benefit was already paid while coverage is in force. Recurrence benefit: pays a benefit if the covered person experiences a subsequent diagnosis which is the same critical illness from which a benefit was already paid, while coverage is in force. For multiple payments to be payable, the separation periods must be met.

***Domestic partner is defined in the group policy. For purposes of this brochure, wherever the term spouse appears, it shall also include domestic partner registered under any state which legally recognizes domestic partnerships or civil unions. Additional information is available from your benefit services representative.

<sup>1</sup> The benefit is only payable once per day even if multiple Health Screenings are provided in a single day.

<sup>2</sup> Portability is referred to as Continuation due to loss of Eligibility in some states. Refer to your certificate.
